

TITLE: JUDITH'S WOOD, 15'

DIRECTOR: Laura Gasperi

WRITER: Rosanna Cavallini

PRODUCER: Subject Woman Mountain

KEY CAST: Judith Sottriffer

OVERVIEW: A short documentary about Judith Sottriffer, artist from North of Italy. She reproduces the wooden toys of the old alpine tradition, that between the 800 and the first half of the 900 were spread throughout the world. Carving, painting and assembling wood, Judith puts her knowledge and poetic energy in transforming it into toys.

DIRECTOR: Laura Gasperi is a photographer and camerawoman, video editor, accordionist and actress. She also edited video and music for theatrical shows, concerts, multimedia expositions and street performances. She made some shorts: "Tracce di danza" (1996), "Àneghe Tàneghe" (2002), "Manamano" (2014). She has a degree in cultural anthropology and lives in Trento (Italy).

TRENTO, ITALY, 2015